

Bio - EDWARD H. TAYLOR

(805) 717-1833

Highly accomplished United Way professional, Edward (Eddie) Taylor has worked for the non-profit since 2006 and is now CEO of the Northern Santa Barbara County operation. He has demonstrated a proven track record for achieving results through effective communication and visionary leadership. His extensive experience in creating, innovating, collaborating, and implementing business and operating plans has yielded meaningful impact on community problems.

Taylor has a strong background in community leadership in a wide range of important service organizations, including the following:

- Habitat for Humanity NSBC, Board Member & Board President
- Leadership Santa Maria Valley
- Coastal Contractors' Association, Founder & President
- Governor's Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention, Board Member
- Play-it-Safe Ocean City Committee, Board Member
- SBC Human Service Commissioner - 5th District
- SBC Kids Network - Council Member
- C3H Homeless Coalition - Executive Council
- Santa Maria Mayor's Task Force on Youth Violence - Policy Council

Professional Certifications

- Certified Nonprofit Executive
- Certified Nonprofit Consultant
- Certified Development Executive
- Certified Fund-Raising Manager